The Second Reading

Titus 3:4-7

When the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 2:1-20

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to be enrolled, each to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered. And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. And in that region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. And the angel said to them, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a babe wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!" When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." And they went with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they saw it they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child; and all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Welcome all wonders

J. A. Kucharski
Text: Richard Crashaw

*Welcome all wonders in one sight! Eternity shut in a span.
Summer in Winter, day in night, Heaven in Earth and God in Man.
That He, the old Eternal Word, should be a child and weep.
Each of us a lamb will bring, each his pair of silver doves,
Till burnt at last in fire of thy fair eyes, Ourselves become our own best sacrifice.*

I saw a Maiden

E. Pettman
Text: Basque Noel

I saw a maiden sitten and sing: she lulled a child, a sweete Lording.

Refrain:

*Lullay, lullay, my dear son, my sweeting.
Lullay, lullay, my dear heart, my own dear darling.*

This very Lord he made alle thing; of lordes the Lord, of kinges the King.

There was mickle melody at that childe's birth: and all in heaven's bliss, they made mickle mirth.

Angels sang that night and saiden to that child: now blest be thou and she, both meek and mild.

Pray we to that child and to his mother dear, His blessing to them that maken now cheer.
