The Collect of the Day

○ God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Reading

Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading

Titus 2:11-14

The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Brother and sisters, on this most holy night of our Lord's birth, that we may find peace, joy and contentment in this holy season, let us pray for ourselves and all those in need of our prayers, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church of Christ, that it may faithfully proclaim the good news of salvation and may care for the needs of God's people in all corners of the world, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer

For peace in our troubled world, that the darkness of war and injustice maybe replaced by the light of peace and love, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer

For all those in need of our prayers: the homeless; the unemployed and underemployed; the hungry; those who are sick, especially [n.]; those who are imprisoned in body or soul; and all those for whom this season is one not of joy bur of trial and sadness, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer

For those who labor this night on behalf of others; doctors and nurses, police officers and firefighters, gas station attendants, bus and taxi drivers, for the men and women of our armed forces, and all those whose work prevents them for sharing this evening with those they love, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer

In thanksgiving we remember the lives of those who have gone before us in faith; that we, like them, may remain faithful to the end and live forever in the light of your eternal glory, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer

For what else or for whom else shall we pray? (The congregation may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.) We pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer

Mighty God, mercifully hear the prayers of the people you have chosen as your won. Give us zeal in our ministries and joy in our work, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
