The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Lamentations 1:1-6

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal. She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies. Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress. The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter. Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe. From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God-- whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did-- when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Today, cathedral flowers to the glory of God are the gift of Sue Cornell in memory of her father, Lee Savorias.

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral!

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

SINGING ROOSTER COFFEE

Your recent orders will be available in the Gift Shoppe on October 3rd. Contact Jack Hughes (w9ula@juno.com or 414.289.0997) if you have questions or need to place a new order.

PRODUCE PRESERVATION AT THE GATHERING

The Gathering's new Fresh Produce Preservation Project continues, likely until the first frost. Fridays, 11:30 am to 3:00 pm -- work in the St. James kitchen to chop, prep and freeze donations of fresh produce. To help out, contact The Gathering at 414.272.4122.

CROP WALK -- KEEP THOSE SIGN UPS AND PLEDGES COMING

October 10th, 12:30 pm

The team presently stands at 6 members, 5 human and 1 canine!!

The CROP Walk is celebrating 25 years in Milwaukee! This event, with which All Saints' has been involved for many of those years, is a 10 km walk which raises money for food pantries and food distribution operations serving the needy. Locally, the Interfaith Conference organizes the walk through most area churches, mosques and synagogues. Team Coach Jack Hughes and the two-legged members of the team will have walk materials at both coffee hours today. Support the walk by joining the team or sponsoring a walker! See a CROP team walker to offer your help, then put on your sneakers and prepare for a great time!

OUR SPACE -- 4TH QUARTER OUTREACH PROJECT

The Cathedral's 4th quarter Outreach Project is the Cow Project of St. Mary's Church, Newala, in southern Tanzania, East Africa. It is the home parish of Dr. Lawi and Molle Issa, who visited All Saints' last September. The Fellowship Group of St. Mary's has started a dairy cow project similar in design to the Heifer Project. They call it "Kopa Ng'ombe, Lipa Ng'ombe" - "Borrow a Cow, Pay a Cow." According to their proposal, of the 10,000 people of Newala, only about 5% have access to milk. Their goal is to increase the access to 20% by the year 2012. The 55 members have contributed $576 themselves; this from individuals in a country where the average yearly income is only some $200. Other donors (in our own midst) have funded the construction of the cow hut and the purchase of two cows. What remains is the purchase of more cows, at around $500 each. Besides these costs, there is training from the Veterinary Officer from the District Council of Newala. But this project is off to a health start. It just needs more push!! Please make checks out to All Saints' Cathedral with "Outreach - Cows" on the notation line
