The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Reading

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

The Second Reading

Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:20-31

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets."

"But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Today, cathedral flowers are given to the greater glory of God by Pat Nakamura in honor of the wedding anniversary of Melinda and Terry Singleton.

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral!

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

JAZZ FOR JUSTICE FUNDRAISER

Saturday, November 13th -- 5:00 p.m. Dinner/7:00 p.m. concert

All Saints' is pleased to host the Lutheran Human Relations Association's annual fundraiser again this fall. The event will feature live jazz by Milwaukee native Marcus Adams. Adams will be backed by other top-rated talent from the Chicago area. This 11th annual event benefits the LHRA's programs to break down hostilities and fears between peoples; bridge racial, cultural, gender, age, ability, class and other separations in our society; and build up the human community. LHRA works with all denominations, organizations, and businesses. Advance tickets: $20 for adults, $10 for seniors & students ($25 & $15 at the door); for ticket reservations, information, or to help with the event, call or e-mail Cindy at the LHRA, 414.536.0585 or lhra@lhra.org.

THE NEWALA COW PROJECT -- 4TH QUARTER OUTREACH

The Cathedral's 4th quarter Outreach Project is the Cow Project of St. Mary's Church, Newala, in southern Tanzania, East Africa. Similar in design to the Heifer Project, called "Kopa Ng'ombe, Lipa Ng'ombe" - "Borrow a Cow, Pay a Cow," the project's goal is to increase access to dairy from 5% to 20% by the year 2012. At around $500 each, purchasing cows is the object of our donations, along with funds for training from the Newala Veterinary Officer. Please make checks out to All Saints' Cathedral with "Outreach - Cows" on the notation line.

MITTENS AND SWEATERS AND COATS, OH MY!

The Outreach Committee would like to remind us that though we were blessed with a golden October, winter is lurking and all around us mittens, warm school clothes and coats are needed! Clothing for kids and the homeless, and food and funds for the Juneau food pantry, are the ongoing missions of the All Saints' congregation. Please, continue to be generous!
