The Collect

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12-14; 2:18-23

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me -- and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 49:1-11

Congregation

1. Hear this, all you peoples; hearken, all you who dwell in the world,* you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.
2. My mouth shall speak of wisdom,*
and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
3. I will incline my ear to a proverb
and set forth my riddle upon the harp.
4. Why should I be afraid in evil days,*
when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,

5. The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods,*
and boast of their great riches?
 6. We can never ransom ourselves,*
or deliver to God the price of our life;
 7. For the ransom of our life is so great,*
that we should never have enough to pay it,
 8. In order to live for ever and ever,*
and never see the grave.
 9. For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stupid they perish and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
 10. Their graves shall be their homes for ever, their dwelling places from generation to generation,* though they call the lands after their own names.
- (second half of chant)*
11. Even though honored, they cannot live for ever;
they are like the beasts that perish.

The Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-11

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things-- anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse

The English Gradual

Al - le - lu - ya. Al - le - lu - ya. _____

The final "Alleluia" is repeated after the Verse.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

FLOODING PUTS PRESSURE ON LOCAL FOOD PANTRIES

The flooding of last week has put strains on local food pantries. Those that had flooding themselves have physical damage and destroyed stock to contend with. Others have had a significant increase in referrals from those that are out of commission. If you can see your way to pick up some extra items in the next few weeks, you can make a big difference for those unable to afford enough healthy food for their families. Place canned and boxed items in the basket(s) at the back of the church on Sunday morning, or bring to ASC and leave next to the volunteer desk during the week. Thanks!

◆ SIGN UP TO WORK AT THE BOOK SALE ◆

A binder with shifts is available at coffee hour -- please look for it and sign up to work a shift or two during the six sale days.

Volunteers for set up and clean up are especially critical

Or, contact Sue Cornell at hungerbooksale@gmail.com or 414.358.3107 to let her know when you can work.

BIG THANKS FOR A GREAT PARISH PICNIC

The Hospitality Committee extends thanks “to everyone who helped with the picnic in any way -- set up, clean up, serving, grilling, etc. Thank you, also, to those who prepared things and brought them in. Many people answered the call for desserts; please know that all dessert leftovers will be eaten at coffee hour this week!

NEEDED -- A FEW GOOD BOOKSHELVES

If you have an old book shelf in sturdy condition that you no longer use, consider donating it to All Saints. It doesn't have to be pretty, just serviceable. We would use them for the book sale and then impress them into service for Sunday School and other purposes. Please call or e-mail the church office if you have shelves to offer!

OUR SPACE -- 3RD QUARTER OUTREACH PROJECT

The Cathedral's 3rd quarter Outreach Project is Our Space, an organization for those with any diagnosis of mental illness. It began at All Saints' Cathedral, under the sponsorship of The Rev. Canon (then-Deacon) Antoine Linterieur, as a daytime drop-in center. Its mission is “to empower adults who have experienced mental illness to attain a more meaningful life by offering quality programs and services which promote recovery and renewal.” Make your checks payable to All Saints', marking the Memo to Our Space Outreach. And, look for display boards providing more information on the organization, its needs and upcoming projects.
