Processional Hymn Vineyard Haven

Hymnal 392

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Gloria in Excelsis

Hymnal S-280

The Collect

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 18:1-11

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: "Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words." So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him.

Then the word of the LORD came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD: Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 1

Congregation

1. Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked,* nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

2. Their delight is in the law of the LORD,*
and they meditate on his law day and night.
3. They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither;*
everything they do shall prosper.
4. It is not so with the wicked;*
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
5. Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes,* nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
6. For the LORD knows the way of the righteous,*
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

The Second Reading

Philemon 1-21

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love-- and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother-- especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

Al - le - lu - ya. Al - le - lu - ya. _____

The final "Alleluia" is repeated after the Verse.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 14:25-33

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now large crowds were traveling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them, "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral!

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

SAVE THE DATE FOR DEAN CARROLL'S INSTALLATION

November 7th, 4:00 pm

The nineteenth Dean of the Cathedral Church of All Saints, Fr. Kevin Carroll, will be installed in an evensong service.

THANKS TO 'CATHEDRAL CLEANING DAY' HELPERS

A very special "thank you" goes out to seven faithful members who answered the call to clean the Cathedral, on a beautiful Saturday. Bob Nakamura polished brass, Lois Wirth, Pat Nakamura, Sarah Knox, Jeff Erdmann and Walter Barnes vacuumed, dusted, scrubbed and polished the church. Bev Deprey spent four hours in the kitchen, making it shine. Look around you and appreciate the extra sparkle. Then, find Walter Barnes, who organized the Cleanup Day, or one of his helpers, and let them know how appreciated their forethought and efforts are!

GIFT SHOPPE NEWS

The Diocese has decided to reduce the price of Haitian Coffee. The cost for each bag is now set at a very competitive level of $9.00. Take advantage of this new low price and place your order with Jack Hughes during any Sunday coffee hour. The Shoppe still has a number of Coupon Books available at $20.00 each, of which $10.00 goes to the Cathedral, thanks to Suzanne Cornell's unique arrangement for us. We still have in stock WORDS for SILENCE, by Gregory, OJN, and the very popular early 1900's winter Cathedral scene, both of which would make ideal gifts.
