The Collect of the Day

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 58:1-12

Thus says the high and lofty one who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 112:1-9

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:1-16

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him" -- these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God. And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual.

Those who are unspiritual do not receive the gifts of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to them, and they are unable to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. Those who are spiritual discern all things, and they are themselves subject to no one else's scrutiny. "For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse

The English Gradual

The final Alleluia is repeated after the verse.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 5:13-20

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

*Therefore we, before him bending, this great Sacrament revere;
types and shadows have their ending, for the newer rite is here;
faith, our outward sense befriending, makes our inward vision clear.*

*Glory let us give and blessing to the Father and the Son, honor, thanks, and praise addressing, while eternal ages run;
ever too his love confessing who from both with both is One.*

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral !

February 6 - 13, 2011

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

$5 ASC MEMBER DISCOUNT TO EARLY MUSIC NOW

The Early Music Now presentation of Plaine & Easie at All Saints' on February 12th is discounted for ASC members. Save $5 on General Admission tickets when ordering by phone or purchasing at the door, just by saying "I'm a member of All Saints'!"

BISHOPS' PASTORAL LETTER

The Pastoral Letter issued by Bishops Jerome Listecki, Steven Miller and Jeff Barrow on the occasion of the 2011 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is (belatedly) available on the distribution tables and at www.ascathedral.org/pastoral_letter.pdf.

SUNDAY PARKING IN ALL SAINTS' LOT

Though only three of the spaces in the lot behind the church are designated 'Handicapped,' the able-bodied are asked to reserve the remainder for those who have difficulty walking, particularly in the ice and snow. The Metro Market permits members of the ASC congregation displaying a shield decal to park in their lower lot (Jackson Street entrance) on Sunday mornings -- let an usher know if you need a decal. Thanks for your cooperation!

FLOWERS FOR FEBRUARY

There are presently no donors signed up for flowers for February -- if you would like to see Sunday flowers, consider marking an upcoming occasion or making a thank offering. Suggested donation is $50 -- please complete an intention slip and turn it in with your flower offering, or submit it to the office.

APB: SMALL SAINTS BAGS

Be On The Lookout for five missing "Small Saints" bags, containing activities for the youngsters in our pews. The stock has dwindled from nine down to just four. If you spot the missing items, please return them to the designated "tree" at the rear of the Nave, or turn them in to the office. Thanks!

FOR I WAS HUNGRY AND YOU FED ME...

The Interchange Food Pantry, just down the hill at The Village Church on the corner of Juneau and Edison Streets, serves hungry people in the Cathedral's area. At this season they, like we, especially need hot foods such as canned chili, stew, soup, hot cereal, cocoa, vegetables, canned meats, noodles, rice and perennials such as peanut butter, jelly, and honey. All Saints' collects non-perishable food items through the year -- they are brought to the altar at our Sunday services along with our monetary gifts. Checks for the purchase of food can be made out to All Saints' Cathedral with "Food Pantry" on the notation line. See www.interchangemilwaukee.org/pantry to learn more.

WHAT'S ON AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL

Wednesday Concert and Fine Art Series: February 9th, 16th and 23rd at 12:15. A freewill donation will be collected at each of these 30-minute musical retreats -- 812 No. Jackson Street

4TH QUARTER PLEDGE STATEMENTS ARE AVAILABLE

Look for your pledge statement at the back of the Nave and at coffee hour!

CATHEDRAL INSTITUTE

"I am Resurrection and I am life,' says the Lord." The return of the Cathedral Institute featured a lively and informative discussion of the prayer book's Burial office and the importance of planning one's funeral and burial. Join us next month (March 10th) for a look at some of the legal considerations of death and dying.

THE HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE THANKS YOU

To everyone who cooked, set up, served and then cleaned up for the annual meeting -- sincerest and heartfelt thanks. And, when you see a Hospitality member, return the appreciation for their fantastic work on our behalf!

WANTED: TRAVELERS TO/FROM MINNEAPOLIS

A "Friend of the Book Sale," formerly resident in the area, but now living in Minneapolis, is in the process of a major cull of household goods, including books. They are pleased to donate them to the Great Hunger Book Sale. If you are planning a car (truck/van) trip to the Twin Cities and would be willing to bring some boxes of donated books back with you, please contact the office.

LOST/FOUND

If you are missing a pair of glasses (and are still able to read this) know that the office may have them! A pair were found on a chair in the Sunday School area on Sunday the 16th. Let us know if you believe they are yours.

BULLETIN BOARD

The Bulletin Board in the hall between the offices and the Library contains a variety of flyers and postcards for community events, performances, extra-Cathedral outreach opportunities and more. Check it out!
