Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Exodus 17:1-7

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarreled with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?" But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?" So Moses cried out to the Lord, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me." The Lord said to Moses, "Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink." Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the Lord, saying, "Is the Lord among us or not?"

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

- 1 Come, let us sing to the / LORD;*
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our / salvation.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanks/giving*
and raise a loud shout / to him with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a / great God,*
and a great King / above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are the caverns of the / earth,*
and the heights of the hills are / his also.
- 5 The sea is his, for he / made it,*
and his hands have molded / the dry land.
- 6 Come, let us bow down, and / bend the knee,*
and kneel before the LORD / our Maker.
- 7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his / hand.*
Oh, that today you would hear/ken to his voice!
- 8 Harden not your hearts, as your forebears did in the / wilderness,*
at Meribah, and on that day at Massah, when / they tempted me.
- 9 They put me to the / test,*
though they / had seen my works.
- 10 Forty years long I detested that generation and / said,*
"This people are wayward in their hearts; they do / not know my ways."
- 11 So I swore in my / wrath,*
"They shall not enter / into my rest."

The Second Reading

Romans 5:1-11

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

John 4:5-42

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you."

Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" They left the city and were on their way to him.

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, eat something." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Surely no one has brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done." So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral !

March 27 - April 3, 2011

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

NEXT CATHEDRAL INSTITUTE: MARCH 31ST

On Thursdays through Lent, we are participating in Bishop Miller's Diocese-wide bible study of St. Matthew's Gospel, broadcast via YouTube videos. These discussions are available on the internet for personal viewing as well (linked from the All Saints' home page). The Cathedral Institute will view the Bishop's discussion of the week's readings, and then talk through the "Questions for Reflection" and share insights. In preparation for this Lenten opportunity, begin to read St. Matthew. BYOB (Bring Your Own Bible), if possible.

MICHAELMAS FAIRE MEETING

The Michaelmas Faire Committee, chaired by Alec Kopitzke, will hold an open meeting for current committee members and anyone interested in supporting the Faire, whether as planners, participants or attendees, TODAY at 11:30 a.m. in the main floor conference area. Everyone is welcome to come and learn more about how to help make the Faire a success.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO JAPAN DISASTER RELIEF

Envelopes are available for your donations to assist recovery efforts following the recent earthquake/tsunami in Japan. Checks may be made out to "Episcopal Relief & Development" with "Japan earthquake relief" in the memo (these checks will not be acknowledged on your All Saints' statements, but will be acknowledged by ERD). If you prefer to have an acknowledgement on a statement from All Saints', you may make your check to us with "Japan earthquake relief" in the memo.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS FRIDAYS DURING LENT

Stations of the Cross will take place each Friday during Lent, following the 5:30 Eucharist.

LOST AND FOUND, REDUX

The old Lost and Found bin, which, ironically, went missing some time ago, has been replaced. It is red, marked as to its purpose, and located to the left of the volunteer desk and filing cabinet near the main floor conference room.

PARISH DIRECTORY UPDATE SCHEDULED

Assist us in making the directory as complete and correct as we are able by turning in your "census" form at your earliest convenience. If you did not receive this form, but are a member or friend of the congregation, please contact the office to request one or fill out a blank copy (found on the Distribution Tables). Thanks for participating.

WHAT'S ON AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL

- Wednesday Concert and Fine Art Series: weekly musical event beginning at 12:15 each Wednesday. A freewill donation will be collected at each of these 30-minute musical retreats -- 812 No. Jackson Street.
- Women's Spirituality Discussion Group ~ Friday, April 1st at 12:00 noon, Weakland Center (2nd flr.) -- 831 No. Van Buren Street. Discussion topic is "Anything Can Happen at a Well," with guest presenter Sr. Virginia Stone, BVM, M.A. RSVP by 3/31 to Rachel rachelegarczynski@stjohncathedral.org or 414.276.9814 x3102.
- Grand Music for a Grand Space Concert ~ Friday, April 8th at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $20 ($15 seniors/students). More information at 414.276.9814 x3116 or www.stjohncathedral.org/finearts.

Look for our Facebook link on our website

EASTER FLOWERS

Flower Guild Chairman, Dennis Mehalopoulos, reminds everyone that it's time to consider a donation towards Easter Flowers. It's a wonderful time and way to honor or memorialize someone dear to you, or a milestone of some kind. Envelopes for the purpose are provided in your bulletins this morning. Place your donations, including intention, in the collection plate today or next Sunday, if possible. Thanks!

CHORAL EVENSONG FOR LENT III

This Afternoon
3:30 Organ Prelude ~ 4:00 Evensong
Reception to follow

FATHER DREBERT RECEIVES THE CALL

His many friends here will be delighted to learn that Father David Drebert, our former Acting Dean, has been called to be the Tenth Rector of Trinity Memorial Church in Binghamton, New York. Trinity Memorial, which is located in downtown Binghamton, dates back to 1868, and has an average Sunday attendance of 128. It has an active and dedicated congregation (three years ago, a capital campaign for repairs to its roof and masonry raised $725,000). Fr. Dave will begin his work there on June 1, and promises to send his new address. Virtually all the members of All Saints' Chapter met informally with visiting members of Trinity Memorial's Discernment and Search Team for several hours earlier this year, and strongly supported his candidacy.

WEEKLY CENTERING PRAYER: TUESDAYS

All Saints Cathedral is now home to a Centering Prayer group, meeting every Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. in the library. Centering prayer, an ancient practice, is silent prayer of surrender to God. The time together - a little over an hour - includes a short study time and concludes with lectio divina - a thoughtful reading of the coming Sunday's gospel lesson. If you have been wanting a more prayerful Lent, this may be your answer. Please join us!

ADULT SPIRITUAL FORMATION/BIBLE STUDY

Monday nights March 28 at 7:00 p.m. at the Bendlers' home in New Berlin (262.679.2834) and April 4 and 11 at the Kalvelages' home in Pewaukee (262.695.5164);
Tuesday nights April 5 & 19 at 6:00 p.m. at All Saints', led by Fr. Himmerich

All are welcome, and newcomers may join at any time!

OTHER UPCOMING EVENTS AT ALL SAINTS'

March 27th ~ Michaelmas Faire Meeting (11:30 am)
27th ~ Choral Evensong (3:30 pm prelude; 4:00 pm service)
April 9th ~ The Gathering (7:00 am at St. James' church)
10th ~ Kirking o' the Tartan (2:00 pm)
12th ~ CPR Training -- pre-register by 4/5 (6:00 pm)
16th & 17th ~ Ensemble Musical Offering Concert: Vivaldi, part II (8:00 p.m. Saturday/4:00 p.m. Sunday - pre-concert lecture one hour before show time)

DEAN'S HOURS

Monday - Thursday, 8:30-5:30 and at other times by appointment; off Friday and Saturday -- in the event of a pastoral emergency, reach The Dean at 414.607.3972.

Thank you to this week's 'Holy Folder,' Walter Barnes
