The Collect of the Day

○ God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the multitude, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 116:1-3, 10-17

choir and congregation

J. Pring

- 1 I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my / suppli / cation,* because he has inclined his ear to me when / ever I / called up / on him.
- 2 The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took / hold of / me; *
I / came to / grief and / sorrow.
- 3 Then I called upon the / Name of the / LORD: *
“O LORD, I / pray you, / save my / life.”
- 10 How shall I re / pay the / LORD*
for all the / good things / he has / done for me?
- 11 I will lift up the / cup of sal / vation*
and call up / on the / Name of the / LORD.
- 12 I will fulfill my / vows to the / LORD*
in the / presence of / all his / people.
- 13 Precious in the / sight of the / LORD*
is the / death / of his / servants.
- 14 O LORD, / I am your / servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid; you have / freed me / from my / bonds.
- 15 I will offer you the sacrifice / of thanks / giving*
and call up / on the / Name of the / LORD.
- 16 I will fulfill my / vows to the / LORD*
in the / presence of / all his / people, (second half of chant)
- 17 In the courts of the / LORD'S / house,*
in the midst of you, O Je / rusalem. / Halle / lujah!

The Second Reading

1 Peter 1:17-23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Al - le - lu - ya. Al - le - lu - ya. _____

The final Alleluia is repeated after the verse.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 24:13-35

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

That very day, the first day of the week, two of the disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral !

May 8 - 15, 2011

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

LAY EUCHARISTIC MINISTER AND VISITOR TRAINING

If you are interested in learning about and/or receiving training to be come a licensed Eucharistic Minister/Visitor, please contact the Dean. A two-part training is scheduled for May 15th and 22nd, right after the 10:00 service.

BOOK SALE'S ANNUAL 'SIP & STICK' COMING SOON

While the sticky book sale days of August still seem a long way off, it is, in fact, time to mail 'Save the Date' postcards to the sale's mailing list! At the coffee hour following the 10:00 service on May 15th, the Book Sale Committee will have postcards and mailing labels, and asks that everyone take a few minutes to stick some labels while sipping his coffee!

FOR I WAS HUNGRY AND YOU FED ME...

The Interchange Food Pantry, just down the hill at The Village Church on the corner of Juneau and Edison Streets, serves hungry people in the Cathedral's area. All Saints' collects non-perishable food items through the year -- they are brought to the altar at our Sunday services along with our monetary gifts. Checks for the purchase of food can be made out to All Saints' Cathedral with "Food Pantry" on the notation line. See www.interchangemilwaukee.org/pantry to learn more.

CURRENT QUARTER FORWARD DAY-BY-DAY AVAILABLE

The May/June/July 2011 Forward Day-By-Day booklets are on the Distribution Table by the sacristy, in both "regular" and large print.

NEXT CATHEDRAL INSTITUTE: JUNE 9TH

Beginning a four-month series on prayer, the next Cathedral Institute will be led by Bishop Miller, live and in person. This month's topic will be "The Practice of Prayer." Monthly sessions consist of the 5:30 Eucharist, a simple dinner at 6:00, and the presentation beginning around 6:45 p.m. Look for a sign-up sheet for dinner items at coffee hours.

DONATE YOUR OLD TONER/INK CARTRIDGES

Did you know that recycling toner and ink cartridges through office supply stores accrues "rewards points/$$" that translate in to cash discounts? All Saints' regularly returns our used ink and toners, and so receives a quarterly gift card good for purchases at our regular office supply vendor. If you'd like to help us to receive more cash credit to use on paper and white-out and replacement toners, bring in your own used ink/toner cartridges from your home equipment. They can be left in the office mailbox or, for larger items, in a bag on the office door. Thanks in advance for pitching in with your used cartridges!

WHAT'S ON AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL
