The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 22:1-14

God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you." So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you." Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Abraham said, "God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So the two of them walked on together.

When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me." And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place "The LORD will provide"; as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 13

Congregation

- 1 How long, O LORD? will you forget me for ever?*
how long will you hide your face from me?
- 2 How long shall I have perplexity in my mind, and grief in my heart, day after day?*
how long shall my enemy triumph over me?
- 3 Look upon me and answer me, O LORD my God;*
give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;
- 4 Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him,"*
and my foes rejoice that I have fallen.
- 5 But I put my trust in your mercy;*
my heart is joyful because of your saving help.
- 6 I will sing to the LORD, for he has dealt with me richly;*
I will praise the Name of the Lord Most High.

The Second Reading

Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

DONATIONS WANTED

- ▶ 2-3 picnic tables that may be used over the summer for our Sunday coffee hours on the Cathedral Green;
- ▶ A nice grand piano

If you have either of these to offer, please let the Office know.

BOOK SALE: SPREAD THE WORD

Look at coffee hour for the pink Great Hunger Book Sale postcards that you can send to friends/family to invite them to the book sale. There are also flyers for you to take to your favorite haunts (gym, coffee shop, grocery store, etc.) to post. The more who know, the more who'll come!

FOR I WAS HUNGRY AND YOU FED ME...

The Interchange Food Pantry, just down the hill at The Village Church on the corner of Juneau and Edison Streets, serves hungry people in the Cathedral's area. All Saints' collects non-perishable food items through the year -- they are brought to the altar at our Sunday services along with our monetary gifts. Checks for the purchase of food can be made out to All Saints' Cathedral with "Food Pantry" on the notation line. See www.interchangemilwaukee.org/pantry to learn more.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

A cooperative VBS will be held this year at St. Paul's Church (914 East Knapp Street) for the youngsters of All Saints', St. Paul's and St. Mark's. It will be the evenings (5:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., with an optional dinner from 5:00 to 5:30) of August 8-12. "Renew" is the theme - sign-up sheets for participants are on the bulletin board, along with a poster for volunteers. If you have an evening or two to act as an adult helper in a variety of categories, put down your name and phone number and a St. Paul's VBS coordinator will call you to confirm.

BOOK SALE SORTING & PRICING ONGOING

Volunteers may work regularly, or only for a single day. Sorting and pricing runs Monday-Thursday, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., up until the week of the sale.

Additional help needed:

- Student helpers, who do the "heavier lifting," don't begin work until July 5. We need a few people who can lift boxes and can sort out the books by category. Both of these require someone a little younger than most of the "usual" volunteers.

- Marshall Pepper, who usually does book pick-ups, is unexpectedly out of town; Sue Cornell is doing the book pick-ups using help during the day. However, some are small and scattered throughout the metro area. Does anyone have time to do pickups (day or night) in your part of the city?

Anyone who can help should contact Sue by e-mail (sc@dwcornell.com) or phone (414.688.3107).

BLOOMIN' SAINTS MEETS THURSDAY EVENINGS

Bloomin' Saints has begun weekly yard work on Thursday evenings at 5:30 p.m. No experience necessary!

WHAT'S ON AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL

- ▶ To add a name to the long-term intercessions, please contact the office directly so that we may make the addition, and make a note of both the requester and a timeframe when we may check back with you regarding the status of your request.

NEXT CATHEDRAL INSTITUTE: JULY 7TH

Continuing the four-month series on prayer, at the next Cathedral Institute Dean Carroll will present Morning and Evening Prayer, the most important "hours" of the Divine. Monthly sessions consist of the 5:30 Eucharist, a simple dinner at 6:00, and the presentation beginning around 6:45 p.m. Look for a sign-up sheet for dinner items at coffee hours.
