The Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 29:15-28

Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?" Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah's eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel." Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me." So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed." So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?" Laban said, "This is not done in our country-- giving the younger before the firstborn. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years." Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.

The Second Reading

Romans 8:26-39

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written,

"For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus put before the crowds another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened." "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it. "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

"Have you understood all this?" They answered, "Yes." And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral !

July 24 - 31, 2011

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

BOOK SALE UPDATE

❖ The 30th Annual Great Hunger Book Sale is almost here, and it's time to schedule volunteers - look for sign-up sheets in the three-ring binder at coffee hours. People are needed for:

- Set-up on Sunday, July 31 after the 10:00 service, when we change the Guild Hall from a chapel into a book sale
- Monday and Tuesday, August 1 & 2 from 9-2, when volunteers will start putting the books out for display.
- Preview Night on Thursday, August 4 from 6-9 pm is the busiest time of the sale.
- Friday through Tuesday, August 5-9 -- 2-hour shifts

Set-up activities are more physical; volunteers for the sale itself act as greeters, cashiers and crowd control and are expected to help keep the books in order as well as serve. You may also call or e-mail Sue Cornell to sign up; sc@dwcornell.com or 414.688.3107.

❖ Special commemorative T-shirts for our 30th anniversary have been designed. You can purchase these shirts for $10. Help us spread the word about "30 years of changing books into food" by wearing your shirts to social events before the sale. There are also still books bags available for $5. Both items will be available at coffee hour.

NEXT CATHEDRAL INSTITUTE: AUGUST 4TH

Continuing the four-month series on prayer, at the next Cathedral Institute Ms. Judy Kaestner, Iconographer, and Ms. Marcia Allison, student and teacher assistant, will present Icon Painting as Devotion and Discipline. Monthly sessions consist of the 5:30 Eucharist, a simple dinner at 6:00, and the presentation beginning around 6:45 p.m. Look for a sign-up sheet for dinner items at coffee hours and on the bulletin board.

THIRD QUARTER OUTREACH PROJECT

All Saints' Cathedral's third quarter outreach project is an agency that our Book Sale has recognized for years: The Cathedral Center, on Van Buren next to St. John's Cathedral, which offers shelter and assistance to families and children, and single women. In addition to funding, the Center needs various ordinary items to help clients regain control of their lives. Look for the display in the dining room, and eventually, another in the narthex, detailing the Center's services and needs, and look for more information in the next Saints Alive. In addition, the website, cathedral-center.org, has detailed history and information. As always, the Outreach Committee greatly appreciates the generosity and concern of the congregation!

Note: collection of non-perishable food items for the Interchange Food Pantry (www.interchangemilwaukee.org/pantry) is on-going.

It will run August 8-12 in the evenings (5:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., with an optional dinner from 5:00 to 5:30). "Renew" is the theme -- sign-up sheets for participants are on the bulletin board, along with a poster for volunteers. If you have an evening or two to act as an adult helper in a variety of categories, put down your name and phone number and a St. Paul's VBS coordinator will call you to confirm.

FOLLOW AND SUPPORT THE "TOUR DE DIOMIL"

Gary Manning, rector of Trinity Church in Wauwatosa has launched his sabbatical project, the centerpiece of which will be the "Tour de DioMil." Beginning on Tuesday, August 30 and concluding on Friday, September 9, Fr. Manning will ride his bicycle around the "perimeter" of the Diocese of Milwaukee. The goals of the Tour, beyond the personal, physical challenge of the ride, are to raise awareness of the ministries of the parish and to raise a total of $50,000 to support the Haiti Project of the Diocese of Milwaukee, the clean water initiatives of Episcopal Relief and Development and the bike-building efforts of World Bicycle Relief. Read more, including the schedule of stops and parishes to be visited along the way, at the Tour's website: <http://tourediomil.weebly.com>.
