The Collect of the Day

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain."

But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to

Moses, "I AM Who I AM." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I AM has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading

Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Hymnal 675

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 16:21-28

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?"

"For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

VOLUNTEER TO HELP:

MICHAELMAS AND DOORS OPEN MILWAUKEE

Look for sign up sheets for the Michaelmas Faire on September 24th, and for Doors Open Milwaukee event on the 24th and 25th. Please note -- you CAN do both!

Michaelmas Faire: The faire will turn the Cathedral Green into the medieval town square of Reading, England on one of the quarterly festival days -- this one celebrating the harvest and St. Michael the Archangel Music and entertainment, hand-crafted goods and food, and historical characters will be on display. Admission is free with the donation of non-perishable foodstuffs for the local pantries. Lots of assistance will be needed for set-up, take-down, activities throughout the day and costumed "local color!"

Doors Open Milwaukee: a new, free event, sponsored by Historic Milwaukee, Inc (HMI). As many as one hundred buildings in the downtown area will be open to the public, free-of-charge, during the weekend of September 24th & 25th. Tours of sites of historic, cultural or architectural interest, will be available, and All Saints' will be participating! We have the unique opportunity to share audience between our Michaelmas Faire and this HMI event, and expose lots of new people to the beauty of our church and the friendliness of our members! We do need some helpers to lead tours and/or be available during the event to answer questions from our visitors.

SEPTEMBER IS COATS FOR KIDS MONTH

All Saints' Cathedral will be collecting gently used children's coat for Condella's Coats for Kids Campaign. In the coming weeks (through October 7th), please look through your closets and bring in any children's coats that no longer fit your own youngsters. Donations will be cleaned by a program partner (Industrial Towel & Uniform -- ITU) and distributed through the Salvation Army. Donation boxes will be located near the Narthex entrance -- feel free to bring them during office hours or on Sundays.

Many families will need to depend upon assistance like this to keep their children warm this winter. If you know of a family in need of coats through the program, have them contact their school social worker, teacher or counselor.
