Hymnal S-280

The Collect of the Day

Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 37:1-4, 12-28

Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." He answered, "Here I am." So he said to him, "Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron.

He came to Shechem, and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, "What are you seeking?" "I am seeking my brothers," he said; "tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock." The man said, "They have gone away, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams." But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life." Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him" -- that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers agreed. When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 85:8-13

Congregation

8. I will listen to what the LORD God is saying,*
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.
9. Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him,* that his glory may dwell in our land.
10. Mercy and truth have met together;* righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
11. Truth shall spring up from the earth,*
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
12. The LORD will indeed grant prosperity,*
and our land will yield its increase.
13. Righteousness shall go before him,*
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

The Second Reading

Romans 10:5-15

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, "Who will ascend into heaven?" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 14:22-33

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Welcome to All Saints' Cathedral !

August 7 - 14, 2011

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US in our Eucharistic Celebration today. If you are a baptized Christian, we invite you to receive the consecrated bread and wine at the altar rail during Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion, and children who have not yet been prepared to receive, are invited to come to the rail to receive a blessing from the Priest. Simply cross your arms over your chest to identify yourself as one who desires a blessing.

FOR SPECIAL PRAYERS FOR HEALING with the laying on of hands, please go to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel during the postlude at the conclusion of the 10:00 am Eucharist.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TODAY, please be sure to sign the guest register in the Narthex at the front doors of the Cathedral. This will give us a chance to send you a written thank you and also to remember you in our weekly prayers.

COFFEE HOUR takes place after all Sunday services. We would enjoy meeting you and getting to know you better. Please be our guest and enjoy refreshments and fellowship with us.

BOOK SALE UPDATE

- ❖ The 30th Annual Great Hunger Book Sale is under way, and volunteers are still welcome, including TODAY'S 11:00 - 1:00 shift, and for Monday and Tuesday. Check in Sue Cornell (sc@dwcornell.com or 414.688.3107) to offer your time.
- ❖ Special 30th anniversary T-shirts are still available for $10. Help us spread the word about "30 years of changing books into food" by wearing your shirts to social events before and during the sale. There are also still books bags available for $5. Both items will be available at coffee hour.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT SOJOURNER FAMILY PEACE CENTER

Volunteers are needed at Sojourner Family Peace Center to provide a variety of services, including on the Domestic Violence Hotline, at the Sojourner Truth House shelter, in the Beyond Abuse program, and as part of the Restaging Order Clinic in the Domestic Violence Unit at the Milwaukee District Attorney's Office and at their Advocacy Office. A minimum of three hours each week for six months is requested. A required training program will begin on September 13, and continue on September 15, 20, 22 and 27 from 5:30-8:15 p.m. All five evenings are required. Contact Melinda Wall Piraino at 414.933.2722 or melindap@familypeacecenter.org by September 9th to register, or for further information.

BLOOMIN' SAINTS CREW WELCOMES YOUR HELP

Remember that our clutch of gardening volunteers works on Thursday evenings, beginning at about 5:45 -- they would be happy to induct new members, whether you'd like to make it a regular weekly activity, or simply find you've time on your hands on the odd Thursday. No experience necessary!

THIRD QUARTER OUTREACH PROJECT

All Saints' Cathedral's third quarter outreach project is an agency that our Book Sale has recognized for years: The Cathedral Center, on Van Buren next to St. John's Cathedral, which offers shelter and assistance to families and children, and single women. In addition to funding, the Center needs various ordinary items to help clients regain control of their lives. Look for the display in the dining room, and eventually, another in the narthex, detailing the Center's services and needs, and look for more information in the next Saints Alive. In addition, the website, cathedral-center.org, has detailed history and information. As always, the Outreach Committee greatly appreciates the generosity and concern of the congregation!

Note: collection of non-perishable food items for the Interchange Food Pantry (www.interchangemilwaukee.org/pantry) is on-going.

WHAT'S ON AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL

Wednesday Concert and Fine Art Series: weekly half-hour musical event beginning at 12:15 each Wednesday. A freewill donation is collected -- 812 No. Jackson Street.

Choir Auditions: Accepting appointments to audition for Cathedral Choir, Men's Choir, Choristers of St. Francis Xavier and Handbell Choir. For more information, contact All Saints' office, and you will be referred to the correct St. John's Cathedral contact.

AUGUST OPENINGS ON THE FLOWER SCHEDULE

The remaining Sundays in August have not yet been reserved for flower donations. If you have an occasion, anniversary, memorial or thanksgiving for which the donation of Sunday flowers would be appropriate, please fill you name in on the poster in the Narthex, and then complete a reservation slip (pinned to the same bulletin board as the year's schedule) with your intention. Deposit the reservation slip with your check in the offering plate, or put them in an envelope in the Office mailbox.

ADULT CONFIRMATION (AND RECEPTION) CLASSES

Preparation for adult confirmation and reception will take place as a series of five classes preceding the Bishop's visit on All Saints' Sunday (November 6). Please contact the Dean with your intention to participate (kevin.carroll@ascathedral.org), and set aside Thursday evenings September 15 & 29, October 13 & 20 and November 3, at 7:00 p.m.

FOLLOW AND SUPPORT THE "TOUR DE DIOMIL"

Gary Manning, rector of Trinity Church in Wauwatosa will begin his "Tour de DioMil" on Tuesday, August 30. Fr. Manning's 10-day bicycle journey around the "perimeter" of the Diocese of Milwaukee will raise awareness of the ministries of the parish and raise a total of $50,000 to support the Haiti Project of the Diocese of Milwaukee, the clean water initiatives of Episcopal Relief and Development and the bike-building efforts of World Bicycle Relief. Read more, including the schedule of stops and parishes to be visited along the way, at the Tour's website: <http://tourdediomil.weebly.com>. Contribute at the website or by check to "Trinity Episcopal Church - Circle Tour," mailed to Trinity Episcopal Church, 1717 Church Street, Wauwatosa, 53213. The contribution is tax deductible.
